

Lord, I Lift My Soul to You

Psalm 25

Music: Joseph Parry, 1876

Tune: ABERYSTWYTH

Text: Stephen M. Fearing, 2015

Vocals

1. Lord, I lift my soul to you; in your ho - ly name I trust.
2. Mer - ci - ful your acts, O Lord, bring sal - va - tion to my heart.
3. Re - call not my sins of late; help re - lease me from their hold.
4. Lone - ly and down - cast am I; act with mer - cy, guard my life.

5

Vox.

Long I've known your paths are true; all your ways are good and just.
Wis - dom is my sole re - ward; from you may I ne'er de - part.
Save me from my dis - mal fate; keep me hum - ble, keep me bold.
On your good - ness I re - ly; help me in these times of strife.

9

Vox.

Wait - ing ev - er for your love, lead me in your truth and grace.
May your pre - sence with me stay, your in - struct - ions fill my soul.
Al - ways to your - face I gaze, look up - on your ser - vant now.
May re - demp - tion be my course, and my trou - bles be no more.

13

Vox.

Per - fect guid - ance from a - bove, ev - er more in your em - brace.
Guide me, Lord, a - long the way, on - ly with you am I whole.
I shall fol - low all my days, this my on - ly, sol - emn vow.
With your grace my on - ly source, you will my new life re - store.
