

What Would Happen If We Dared to Reimagine Wealth and Worth?

A Hymn Inspired by Leviticus 19:9-10; 25:8-12

Text: Stephen M. Fearing, 2020

Tune: IN BABILONE

Meter: 8.7.8.7.D

Music: Dutch Melody; arr. Julius Röntgen, c. 1906

Piano

1. What wouldhap - pen if we dared to re - i - ma - gine wealth and worth?
2. Ev - 'ry - thing be - comes re - bal - anced; trum - pets sound to start the feast.
3. What if we ac - cept this sum - mons, take its man - date ser - ious - ly?

5

Pno.

What if we each took a stand to end the ills that plague this earth?
Ev - 'ry - one finds new be - gin - nings, from the great - est to the least.
What if we com - mit to change and teach our child - ren diff - erent - ly?

9

Pno.

In the Bi - ble there's a pass - age that ex - plains God's sure de - cree.
Slaves are freed and debts are can - celled; hu - man worth is re - de - fined.
We could find a kind - er world and break the cy - cles of des - pair.

13

Pno.

It takes place each fif - ty years; it's called the year of ju - bi - lee.
Pre - da - tor - y e - co - no - mics has no place in God's de - sign.
Help us, God, to fol - low you and build e - co - no - mies of care.