

With All That You Are

A Hymn of Invitation w/ optional fifth verse for Ash Wednesday

Tune: LYONS

Text: Stephen M. Fearing, 2021

Music: Joseph Martin Kraus, 1784

Piano

1. With all that you are, come dine in God's grace;
2. With all of your doubts, those an - swers un - heard,
3. With all that is bro - ken, lost, or a - bused,
4. With all of your weep - ing tears of de - spair,
5. We ga - ther with ash - es marked on our head;

Pno.

for here you are found and here is your place.
and all of those quest - ions seek - ing God's word;
and all that's a - ban - doned, batt - ered, or bruised.
and cries of la - ment you lift up in prayer;
the sign of the cross, of wild - er - ness bread.

Pno.

8
Your sa - vior is call - ing you, all of you, here;
come ga - ther like Ja - cob to wrest - le with God,
There's no - thing with - in you that God can't re - deem.
This part of you's wel - come, you need not pre - tend,
The path laid be - fore us is not one of shame.

Pno.

for now is the Spi - rit of God draw - ing near.
and we'll find to - ge - ther a love deep and broad.
Be filled to the brim by a ne'er - end - ing stream.
for you're God's be - lov - ed, and here we can mend.
We're pil - grims of pro - mise with grace to pro - claim!
